CHARLES H. TAYLOR MEMORIAL LIBRARY

MY AIM has been to make a cheerful, attractive and useful newspaper that would enter the home as a kindly, helpful friend of the family. My temperament has always led me to dwell on the virtues of men and institutions rather than upon their faults and limitations. My disposition has always been to build up rather than to join in tearing down. My ideal has always been that a newspaper should help men, women and children to get some of the sunshine of life, to be better and happier because

THE XIX XXXII KRABBA

THE TENTH VOLUME

of

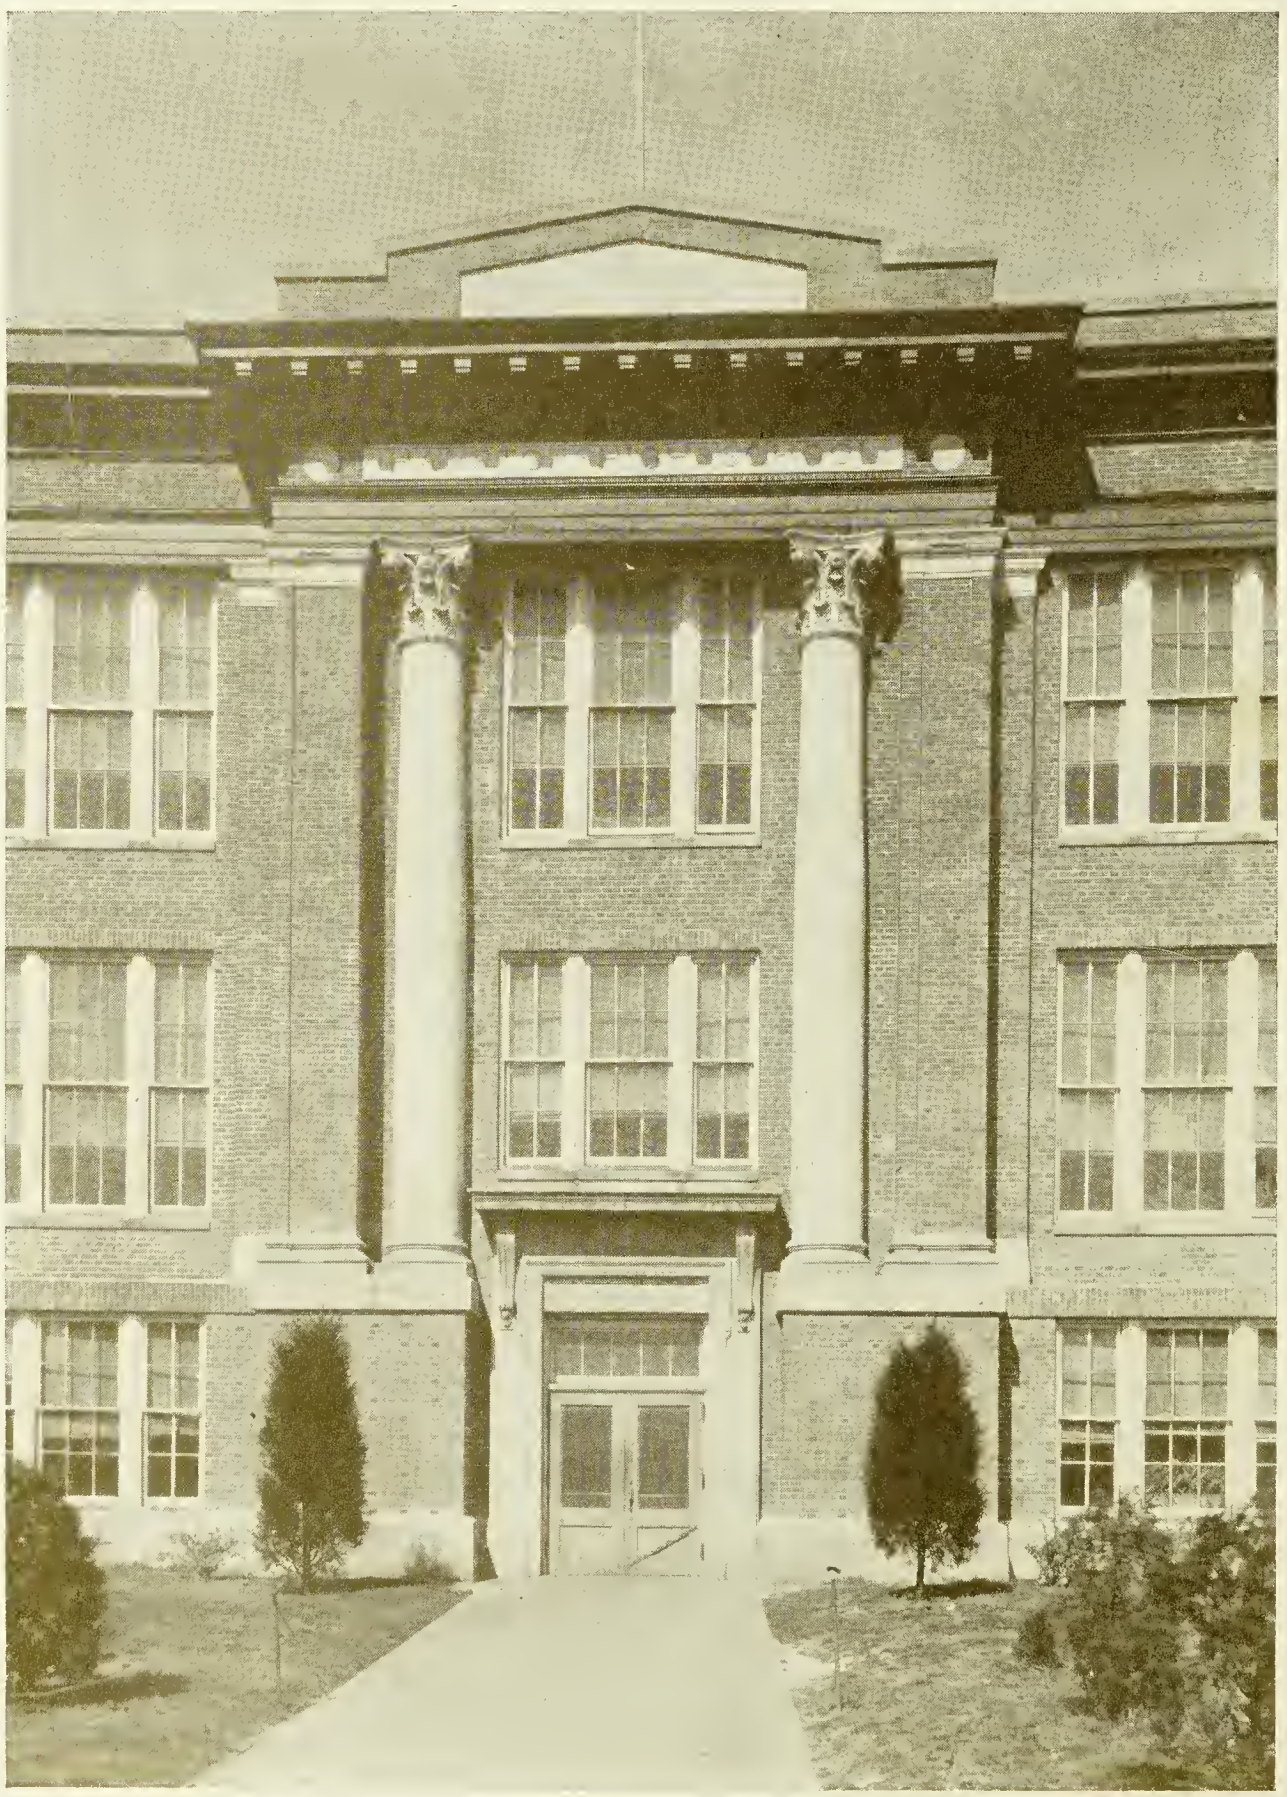

THE KRABBA

The Annual Publication of the Students of

HAMPTON HIGH SCHOOL

HAMPTON, VIRGINIA

The School

1568 1

FOREWORD

In an attempt to realize the privilege that has been ours to chronicle the history of the student body for one year of its existence, the staff has labored in order that we might present a true and thoroughly representative chronology.

The past rests on its glories, the future is yours,—it is the sincere wish of the staff that this book may play its part in keeping alive the wholesome memories and cherished thoughts of your high school life.

Dedication

To the memory of one who generously enriched the lives of those about him, who by his life put before us an example of true manhood to the memory of
The Reverend George Oscar Watts
this annual is reverently dedicated.

Perseverance

No matter how hard the wind may blow
There's a way to weather it somehow, you know.

Adversity merely paves the way
For better things in a future day.

For the man that swims against the tide
Courage and strength with him abide.

Attempt the end and be content
That all your efforts are well spent.

Then let us own our errors past
Each day a critic of the last.

MADOLYN BENTHALL

"Mat"

Commercial Club, '31; Junior Chorus, '30; Athletic Association, '30, '31; Spanish Play, '30.

Four years ago "Mat" entered Hampton Hi as a docile, quiet freshman. Since then she has grown in stature and in popularity (first ask the boys).

ROBERT BLOXOM

"Bobby"

Thomas Jefferson Literary Society, '27, '28; Athletic Association, '27, '28, '29, '30, '31; Latin Club, '30.

Robert hails from Fox Hill. His constant companions which he tucks under his arm are "Wild West Magazine" and "Star Romances". We wonder if they give him much inside information.

ROSA LEE BOGGS

"Rose"

Athletic Association, '30, '31; French Club, '32; Latin Club, '31; Junior Chorus, '31; Junior Red Cross, '30.

There's no more loyal member of the class of '32 than Rosa Lee. She never gets excited nor worried. We might say about her, "Measures, not men, have always been my mark".

MARY ELIZABETH BRAY

"Meb"

Athletic Association, '29, '30, '31; French Club, '32; Junior Chorus, '30; May Day, '29; Latin Club, '30, '31; Sect'y. Athletic Council, '32; Sect'y. Senior Class, '32; Sect'y. Junior Class, '31; Krabba Staff, '32; Thomas Jefferson Literary Society, '29.

Mary is well known for her secretarial ability. She could almost be classed as a major when she wears all her pins. Mary has a very attached little lamb.

ROSEWOOD BRITTINGHAM

"Rosie"

Athletic Association, '28, '29, '30, '31; Glee Club, '31; Commercial Club, '31; Operetta, '31.

Rosewood doesn't make much noise, but she always comes out on top. Here's luck and success to her.

IRENE VASSAR BRYANT

"Stumpy"

Latin Club, '31, '32; Glee Club, 31; Athletic Association, '31; Junior Chorus, '30; Latin Play, '31.

Irene is a little girl who was vaccinated with a big phonograph needle; however, all her songs aren't blues, and everyone likes to have her around.

ANNABELLE CARSWELL

"Sparky"

Transferred, Balboa Hi, P. C. Z.
D. D. K., '32.

Annabelle comes from Panama. She has made quite an impression on a certain young fellow. Who? Just look down the hall. She is intellectual but maybe she raises her intelligence to win her friends.

CHARLES CATLETT

"Cat"

Athletic Association, '29, '30, '31; Woodrow Wilson Literary Society, '29; Latin Club, '29; French Club, '32; Baseball Team, '31.

Charlie keeps classes roaring and teachers storming, but somehow his smile and wit win the day.

AUDREY CLEMENTS

"Sammy"

Freshman Play, '28; Athletic Association, '29, '30; Junior Chorus, '31; Commercial Club, '31. '32; Latin Club, '30, '31.

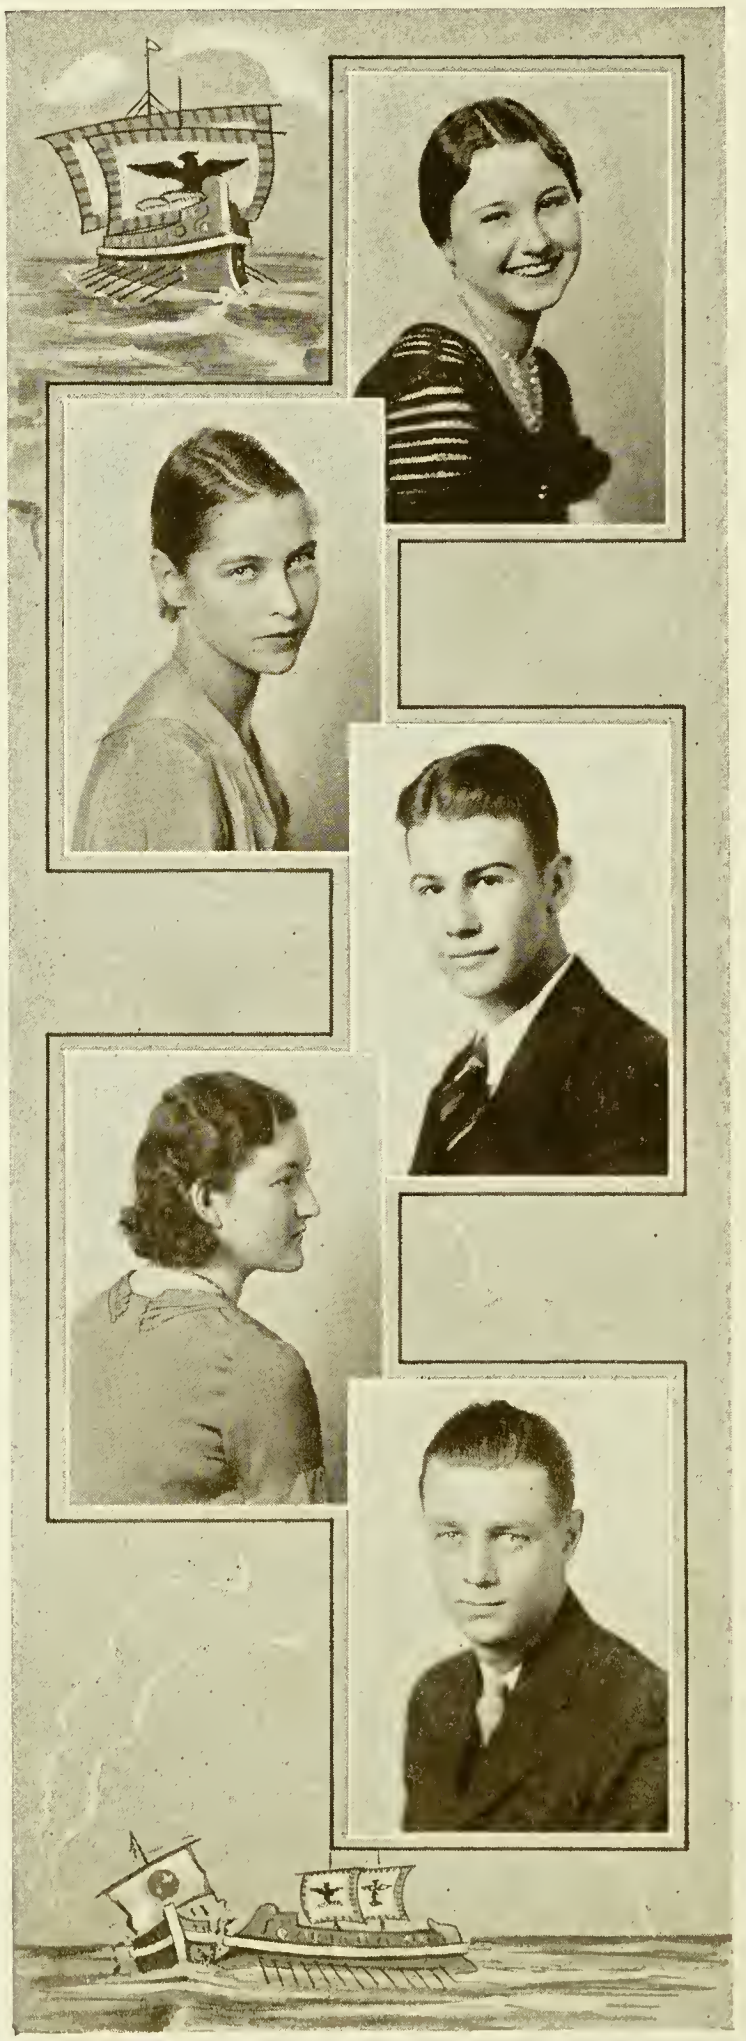

Why is Audrey's nickname "Sammy". Strictly confidential! Audrey is a good business lady and she has plenty of pep.

STEPHEN DYKES CLARK

"Little Steve"

Manager Boys Basketball Team, '32; Athletic Council, '32; Electric Society, '28; Athletic Association, '28, '29, '30, '31; Football Squad, '29.

A jolly good fellow, who has a stand-in with the girls (Pardon us! the girl). Dykes can shuffle those feet, unless it's for hurrying to class.

MARY ALICE COPELAND

"Murney"

Junior Chorus, '31; Commercial Club, '31, '32.

Mary Alice is happy-go-lucky and very entertaining, especially with that flaxen hair and those snapping blue eyes. She has many friends—what could you expect?

REISA COOPER

Junior Chorus, '30; Athletic Association, '30, '31; French Club, '32.

Reisa is one of our studious girls whose mind dwells on lofty themes. With her intelligence and attractive face she'll be a success.

EDWIN CONKLIN

"Eddie"

Latin Club, '29, '30; Thomas Jefferson Literary Society, '28, '29; Athletic Association, '28, '29, '30; Glee Club, '29; Football Squad, '30.

"To hear Eddie sing 'Home' is a treat", so the girls say. Eddie is continually smiling. At what? We like his neckties and his work on the football team.

ELIZABETH CROUSE

"Liz"

Latin Club, '29, '30, '31, '32; Secretary of Latin Club, '31; Orchestra, '30, '31, '32; Vice President Orchestra, '31; Athletic Association, '29, '30, '31; Krabba Staff, '30, '31, '32; Editor-in-Chief, '32; D. D. K. Minstrel, '30, '32; May Court, '30, '31, '32; French Club, '32; Vice President French Club, '32; Junior Chorus, '31.

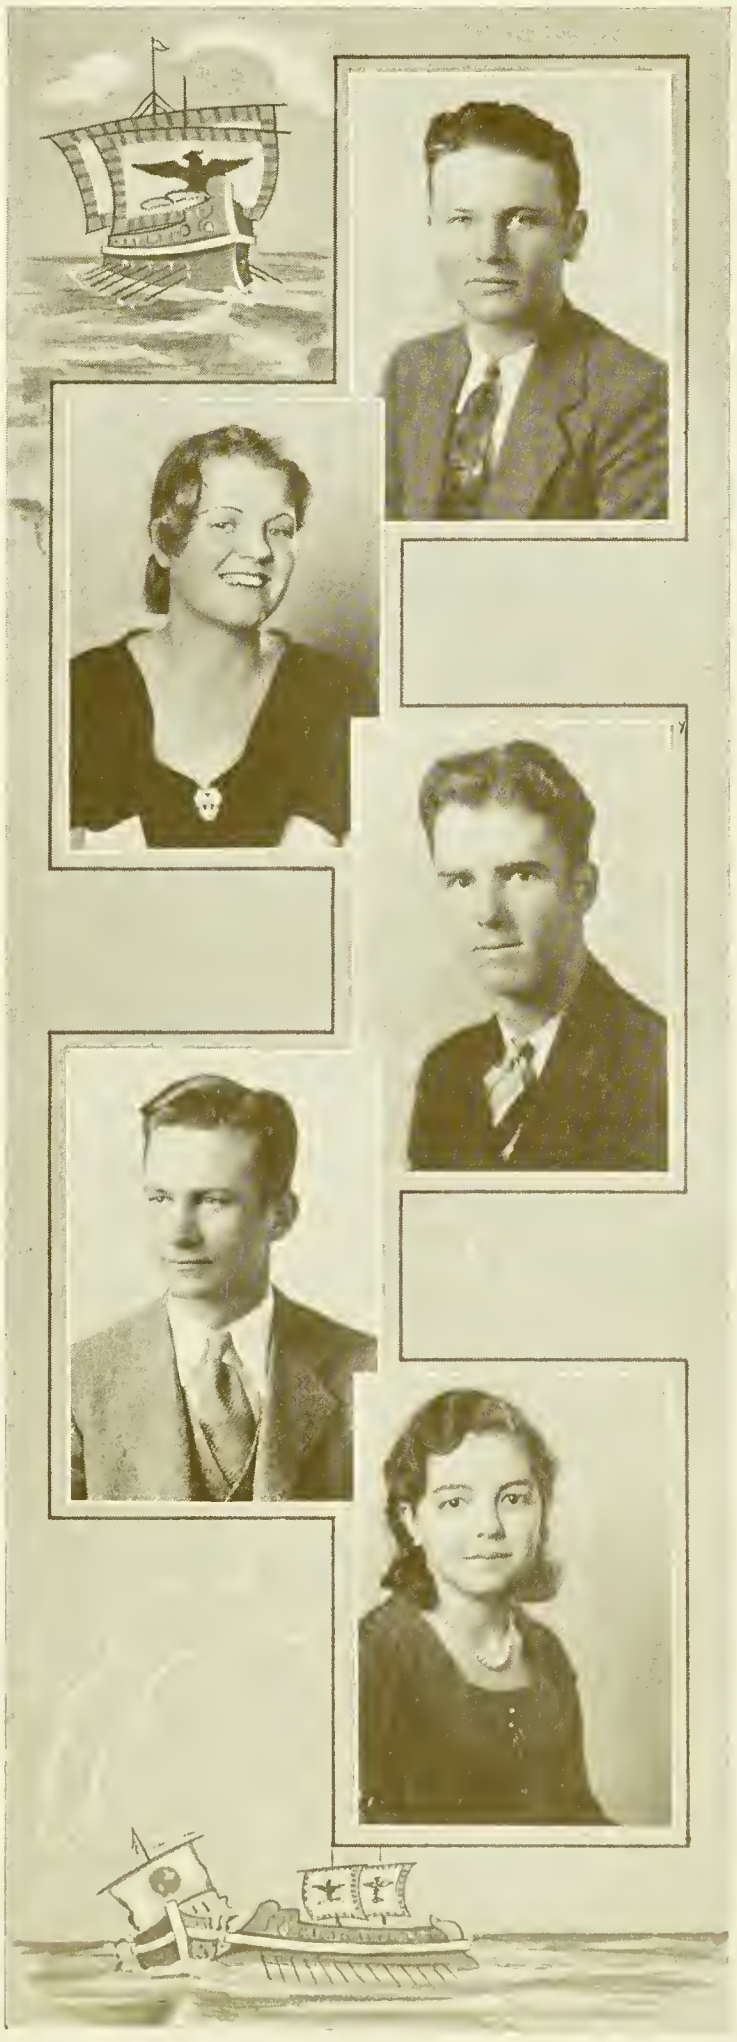

Elizabeth almost had a black crepe around her picture when the Krabba finally went to print, but she manages to laugh and talk as much as ever. She gets teased a lot—unjustly. Did someone say she was on a diet?

KENNETH CUMMING

"K. G." "Muskrat"

President Senior Class, '32; Vice President Athletic Council, '32; Football Squad, '31, '32; Monogram Club; Krabba Staff, '32; Pioneer Staff, '32.

Being President of the Senior Class is a hard job but Kennie managed to pull us through O. K. He has successfully combined scholastic and athletic activities, and is an outstanding member of the class, even if his arguments in Athletic Council aren't so convincing.

ELLSWORTH DANSEY

"Dansey"

Athletic Association, '28, '29, '30.

Dansey is a good sport and takes life as a joke. Everyone likes him. His principle is that he "never overworks".

ELIZABETH ANNE DARDEN

"Darden"

French Club, '32; Athletic Association, '29. '30, '31; Home Economics Club, '32; Glee Club, '30; Junior Red Cross, '31; Thomas Jefferson Literary Society, '29.

For a person blessed with optimism "Lizzie" excells. She can smile and crack a joke even after flunking a test. Home Rooms will never be the same without Lizzie.

EDWARD GLENDAW DAVIS

"Tick"

Athletic Association, '28, '29, '30, '31; Latin Club, '30; Band, '30; Basketball Squad, '30; Thomas Jefferson Literary Society, '28; Treasurer 4A Class, '31.

Tick is really a sporty fellow, well dressed and a good dancer. He is noted for his blue tie, and also for using a lot of gas going to Fox Hill.

NORMAN DAVIS

"Sparkey"

Football Squad, '28, '29, '30, '31; Baseball, '28, '29; Monogram Club, '29, '30, '31.

Yeh! Sparkey! How many times have we heard that cry on the football field, as Sparkey played his usual great game. Sparkey has a characteristic smile and greeting that doesn't fail to attract.

DORA DEANE

"D. A. D."

Commercial Club, '30, '31, '32.

We might call Dora delightful, with that charming "it" of hers. She will make a good secretary: with her mixture of common sense and pure fun. She never seems worried or harrassed, so here's to her!

CLARA BELLE DESPER

"Belle"

Athletic Association, '30, '31; French Club, '32; Secretary French Club, '32; Latin Club, '32; Junior Red Cross, '30; Junior Chorus, '31.

Ask for the most sympathetic girl in High School and you will be directed to Clara Belle, for she will always help someone out of a hole. Clara Belle is a good student, and she has a tongue as quick as lightning. As the "Mrs. Flannery" in "Home, Sweet Home", she was a big success.

GLADYS DRESSER

"Happy"

Athletic Association, '28, '29, '30; Commercial Club, '29, '30, '31; Glee Club, '28, '29, '30; Band, '29; Operetta, '29, '30, '31.

Happy? That's Glady's nickname, so of course she's always seen with a smile on her face. We will miss seeing her arrive at school in that yellow roadster.

MARIE DRUMMOND

"Negro"

Athletic Association, '30; Commercial Club, '31, '32.

Pause awhile, friend, for here is a real "good sport". Marie causes panic among study hall teachers, but everyone likes her. Marie is always in good humor with a cheery answer or some spicy bit of repartee.

MYRTLE EDWARDS

Athletic Association, '28, '29, '30.

Kind, thoughtful with an enviable disposition, Myrtle has won the hearts of the student body, while she has been in high school. We're wishing her the best of luck.

CONSTANCE ETTRIDGE

"Connie"

Athletic Association, '31; French Club, '32.

We hear that Connie is going to become a dancer and we wish her luck. The practicing which she does at school is a good sample. Equal parts of intelligence and capability make her a good friend.

FRANCES FERTITTA

"Frank"

Athletic Association, '29, '30, '31; Thomas Jefferson Literary Society, '29; Latin Club, '30; Junior Chorus, '30; French Club, '32.

Have you ever read a book whose every page presented new and more desirable characteristics? If so you have an idea of Frank. She is studious and a hard worker, always seeking to please.

JAYNE FOGLEMAN

"Jay"

Woodrow Wilson Literary Society, '29; Athletic Association, '29, 30; Commercial Club, '29; Junior Chorus, '30; Glee Club, '28, '29, '30, '31.

Everyone knows and likes Jayne, and her funny little laugh. She's smart in her studies, and they certainly don't interfere with her popularity. She has the reputation of being able to wear becomingly an original hair cut.

CHAUNCEY FRANKLIN

French Club, '32; Athletic Association, '30, '32.

Chauncey is well known for his solemn wit, always making people laugh. He is a favorite among girls and he certainly "taxies them around". Chauncey is also one of those "dignified floating seniors".

MARY ESTHER FULLER

Commercial Club, '31, '32; Junior Chorus, '31.

We who know Esther find her a perfect friend, dependable, sympathetic, and always ready for fun.

LOIS JARRET

"Snowball" "Hoss"

Athletic Association, '30, '31; Secretary Sophomore Class, '30; Junior Red Cross, '30, '31; French Club, '32; Class Last Will and Testament, '32.

"Petite" is the word for Lois. No one in high school has such a good time all of the time. "Snowball" is a good student and gossiper. She finds all the spicy gossip, but we "love'r". May she conquer the world.

DOROTHEA GILBERT

"Dot"

Glee Club, '30, '31; Junior Chorus, '31.

A rare and pleasing combination of the practical and idealistic. We have in Dorothea a scholar and a dream. Good luck to you, Dot!

JACQUELINE GREEN

"Jac"

Commercial Club, '31, '32; Junior Chorus, '29, '30; Spanish Club, '31, '32.

"Jac" creates a traffic jam in the halls, when she is surrounded by her many admirers. Lately, we have seen one in almost constant attendance. Who could blame him?

KATHERINE GRAHAM

"Kat"

Latin Club, '31, '32; French Club, '32; Athletic Association, '29, '30.

Katherine is rather shy, but she is well known and liked. Her red "Chevey" may be seen coming and going, always packed with a crowd. Katherine is one of the best students in school, and one of the hardest workers.

HAWLEY HANCOCK

"Hawley"

Latin Club, '28, '29; Red Cross, '30, '31; Commercial Club, '31, '32; Junior Chorus, '30.

Hawley is well liked among the students, and we know that she is a favorite with a certain football star.

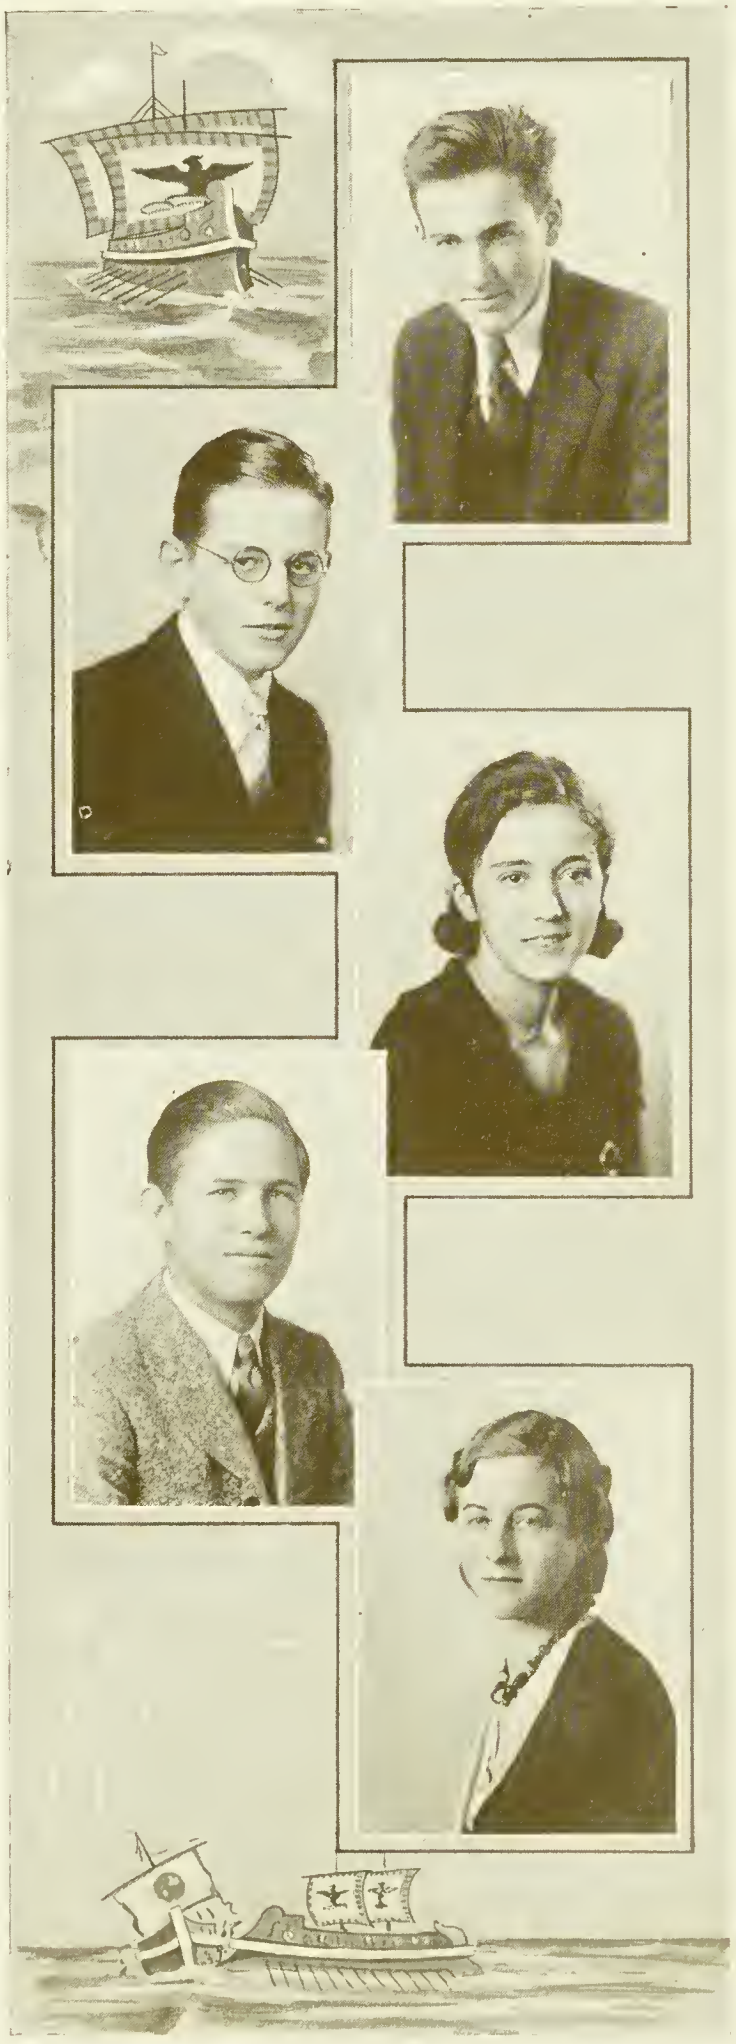

HARRIET HANN

"Jake"

Transferred, Mt. Vernon High School, Iowa
Basketball Squad, '32.

We wish we could have had Harriet with us for four years. She has been outstanding in scholastics and athletics in the one year she has been with us. Often we hear her called "Harry". There must be a reason.

MILTON HOUCK
"Houckey"

Football Squad, '29, '30, '31; Athletic Association, '29; Basketball Squad, '31, '32.

Milton is the high school's best stage hand. He is always ready to help for any entertainment from the Senior play to a Freshman program. He has been successful in athletics and outstanding in high school activities.

WILLIAM HOWARD
"Buzzy"

Latin Club, '29; Literary Society, '29; Athletic Association, '31; French Club, '32.

Buzzy is a quiet fellow except in Home Room and at recess in the ball park. He doesn't kill himself studying because he is fortunate enough to be blessed with intelligence. Many people accuse him of frequenting Newport News Avenue, but we wonder.

MARJORIE HUNDLEY
"Marjie"

Junior Red Cross, '30; Athletic Association, '30, '31; May Court, '30; Junior Chorus, '31; French Club, '32.

A girl that can arrange to stay around high school for four years and not make a single enemy must be O. K. Marjie is intelligent, capable, and she has charming eyes.

JAMES HUTTON
"Jimmy"

Athletic Association, '31.

Quiet and serene, but with a zeal for work which we should take for an example, is Jimmie. He is well known and liked. We wish him luck.

PAULINE JOHNSON
"Polly"

Junior Chorus, '30; Spanish Play, '30.

We think that one could say that Pauline is the quietest girl in the Senior Class; however, her dreamy blue eyes don't fail to attract. She is a good student and a pleasant companion.

CHARLES H. TAYLOR MEMORIAL LIBRARY

BERNICE JONES
"Bernie"

Athletic Association, '28, '29; Woodrow Wilson Literary Society, '28; Glee Club, '29.

Bernice is a go-getter and stops at nothing to attain his goal. He is very well dressed, a good dancer, a fair student, a good friend and a supporter of Hampton.

LEWIS KISSINGER

"Krabba" Staff, '32.

Lewis is a quiet fellow but he deserves a wreath around his picture for his excellent work on the "Krabba". After a certain person sang to him one night of the minstrel, he was confined to his home because of illness. He is known for getting A's in Physics. Unbelievable, but true!

DOROTHY KERR
"Dot"

French Club, '32; Junior Red Cross, '31, '32.

Dot came to us only two years ago, but she has made many friends. Her scholastic standing and intelligence are tempered with a pretty face.

WILLIAM KNEWSTEP
"Bill"

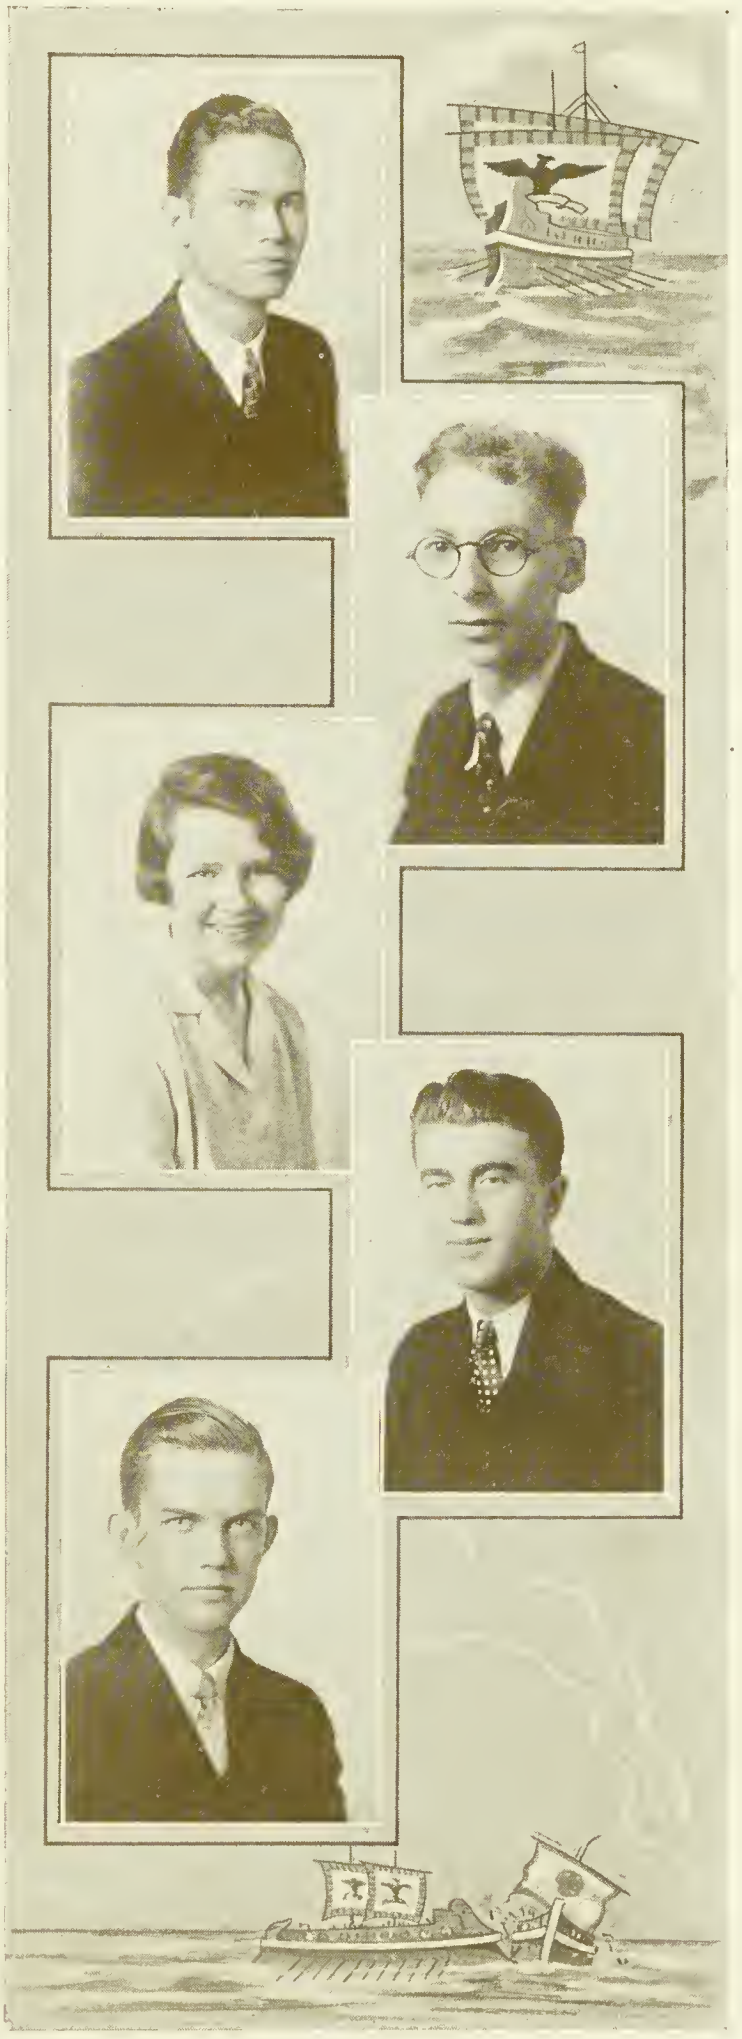

Athletic Association, '28, '29, '30, '31; Football Squad, '30.

Everybody knows that jolly "Knewstep Kid" and his well known trips to Phoebus in that yellow roadster. He has been very popular with everyone in high school.

RAYMOND LEWIS
"Ray"

Athletic Association, '29, '30, '31; Latin Club, '29, '30; Football Squad, '29, '30; Track, '29, '30, '31, '32; Glee Club, '30, '31, '32; Operetta, '30, '31.

The girls gaze spell bound when Ray sings "When the Blue of the Night". He was a great success as the hero in "The Thirteenth Day". In spite of the fact that he's a boy, his name is seen on the Honor Roll in 207.

THERESA MALONEY

"Tess"

Latin Club, '30, '31; Thomas Jefferson Literary Socicty, '29; Athletic Association, '31; Home Economics Club, '32.

Theresa is a rooter for Hampton and when football season comes she goes to every game, and cheers for old Alma Mater. "Small of stature, but great of mind".

GRACE THELMA MUNSON

Commercial Club, '31; Junior Red Cross, '30; Junior Chorus, '30.

Charming intelligence and good sportsmanship are qualitics characteristic of Thelma. She is interesting and she has that rare gift of sympathetic understanding of people.

VIGI MONTA

"Vi"

Commercial Club, '31, '32; Junior Chorus, '31.

Have you ever seen a Spanish lady? Well! You know the type. Vi has languorous charm and flashing black eyes. She is always smiling and full of pep.

ELIZABETH JULIA MOORE

"Liz"

French Club, '32; Home Economics Club, '32; May Day, '29; Junior Red Cross, '32.

Liz is our good old friend. One year at Newport and then back to us proves that she likes Hampton better. She is popular, pretty and good-natured. What a rep!

JULIA MOORE

French Club, '32.

Julia has a charming red head and a twinkling pair of blue eyes. She is a sincere and hard worker. Her pleasant smiling face has been beaming on old H. H. S. during the past four years, obtaining for her a host of friends.

Frances Moreland

"Fran"

President of Freshman Class, '29; Junior Red Cross, '29; Athletic Association, '29, '30, '31; D. D. K. Club, '31, '32; D. D. K. Minstrels, '29, '30, '31; Latin Club, '29, '30, '31, '32; Vice President of Latin Club, 31; Glee Club, '29, '30; Operetta, '30; Junior Chorus, '31; President of French Club, '32; May Court, '30, '31; Manager Girl's Basketball, '31; Athletic Council, '31; "Krabba" Staff, '32.

We'll let Frances' activity list speak for her popularity, charm, and scholastic standing.

Ned Morgan

"Samey"

Football Manager, '30, '31; Football Squad, '27, '28; Monogram Club, '30, '31, '32; Treasurer Athletic Council, '32; Athletic Council, '30, '31, '32; Vice-President 4A Class, '31; Vice-President Senior Class, '32; "Krabba" Staff, '32.

Ned has been interested in all phases of school life. Look at that Hampton activity list! Hampton wants students like him. His thoughts,—quoting the "Mud Puddle",—in spring turn to—baseball. Sorry he didn't get the title of Romeo.

Ethel Oman

Athletic Association, '31; Commercial Club, '31, '32; Junior Chorus, '31; Spanish Club, '32.

Ethel always has a cheery laugh or some spicy bit of repartee. Has anyone seen her with a frown on her face? No! She is one person who can accomplish something in home room period.

Russel Pace

"Krabba" Staff, '29, '30, '31; Glee Club, '30; Operetta, '30; Latin Club, '30; French Club, '32.

Someday Russell will be a famous artist but his pictures can never have any more liveliness and animation than those sketches of Popeye, Buck Jones, and Boscoe on the home room blackboard. Please don't forget his talent as a singer but what songs!

Payne Parker

"Nerts"

Track Squad, '29, '30, '31, '32; Track Manager, '32; Athletic Council, '32; Treasurer Senior Class, '32; Latin Club, '30, '31.

The little fellow known by the famous byword "Nerts". To Payne we are giving credit for being able to collect those Senior dues and still keep an even disposition and cheery smile.

Ruby Price

Latin Club, '28; French Club, '32; Athletic Association, '29; Glee Club, '31; Junior Chorus, '30.

Ruby rates high in the possession of charm and sweetness of disposition, and she can blush very becomingly also. We hate to lose you Ruby, with those blue eyes that "talk". Ruby is independent, reliable, intelligent and true.

Ernest Proudman

Athletic Association, '27, '28, '29, '30; French Club, '32.

Ernest is really the "master of his fate and captain of his soul", but what about his heart? We've been noticing that lately his mind wanders and wanders. Ernest has an intelligent mind and a witty comeback.

Rosalie Quinn

"Rolly"

Athletic Association, '29, '30, '31; Woodrow Wilson Literary Society, '29; Commercial Club, '31; D. D. K. Minstrel, '31; D. D. K. Club, '32; Junior Chorus, '30.

"Laugh and he world laughs with you" is the motto Rolly follows. With her wit and that "c.coony" voice, Rolly was a success in the D. D. K. and also the "Krabba" Minstrels.

William Quinn

"Billy"

Athletic Association, '29, '30; Commercial Club, '31, '32; Spanish Club, '32.

"Billy" has a good time wherever he goes and consequently everyone has a good time with him. He has plenty of grey matter and a store of wit.

Dorothy Ranson

"Dot"

Athletic Association, '29, '30, '31; Thomas Jefferson Literary Society, '29; Latin Club, '30; Glee Club, '29, '30; Junior Chorus, '30.

Dot is a loved member of that "floating Senior" group. Because of her laugh and "Hi" for everyone she has many friends in school.

Mary Elouise Reigal

"Wiggle"

Band, '30; Orchestra, '31, '32; Latin Club, '31; French Club, '32.

Mary Elouise is a good friend, a hard worker, and is always ready for fun. That's the best recommendation we can give to anyone. She has been a faithful member of the orchestra for two years.

Austin Robinson

Athletic Association, '28, '29, '30, '31.

We find boys like Austin only once in a while. We are glad we have him in our class. He's a perfect sport and we believe we heard some one say—he's in love.

Annie Rollins

Commercial Club, '31, '32; Spanish Club, '32; Athletic Association, '29, '30, '31.

Annie is one of those fetching members of the Commercial Department. She uses both her charm and her typing ability to good advantage. Annie is a very sympathetic person.

Forrest Rollins

Woodrow Wilson Literary Socicty, '28, '29; Athletic Association, '28, '29, '30, '31; Track Team, '30, '31, '32; Basketball Team, '30, '31, '32; French Club, '32; Treasurer French Club, '32; "Krabba" Staff.

Forrest is always grinning or laughing. Everyone knows and hails him. Forrest has been one of Hampton's star basketball players, and we hate to see him go.

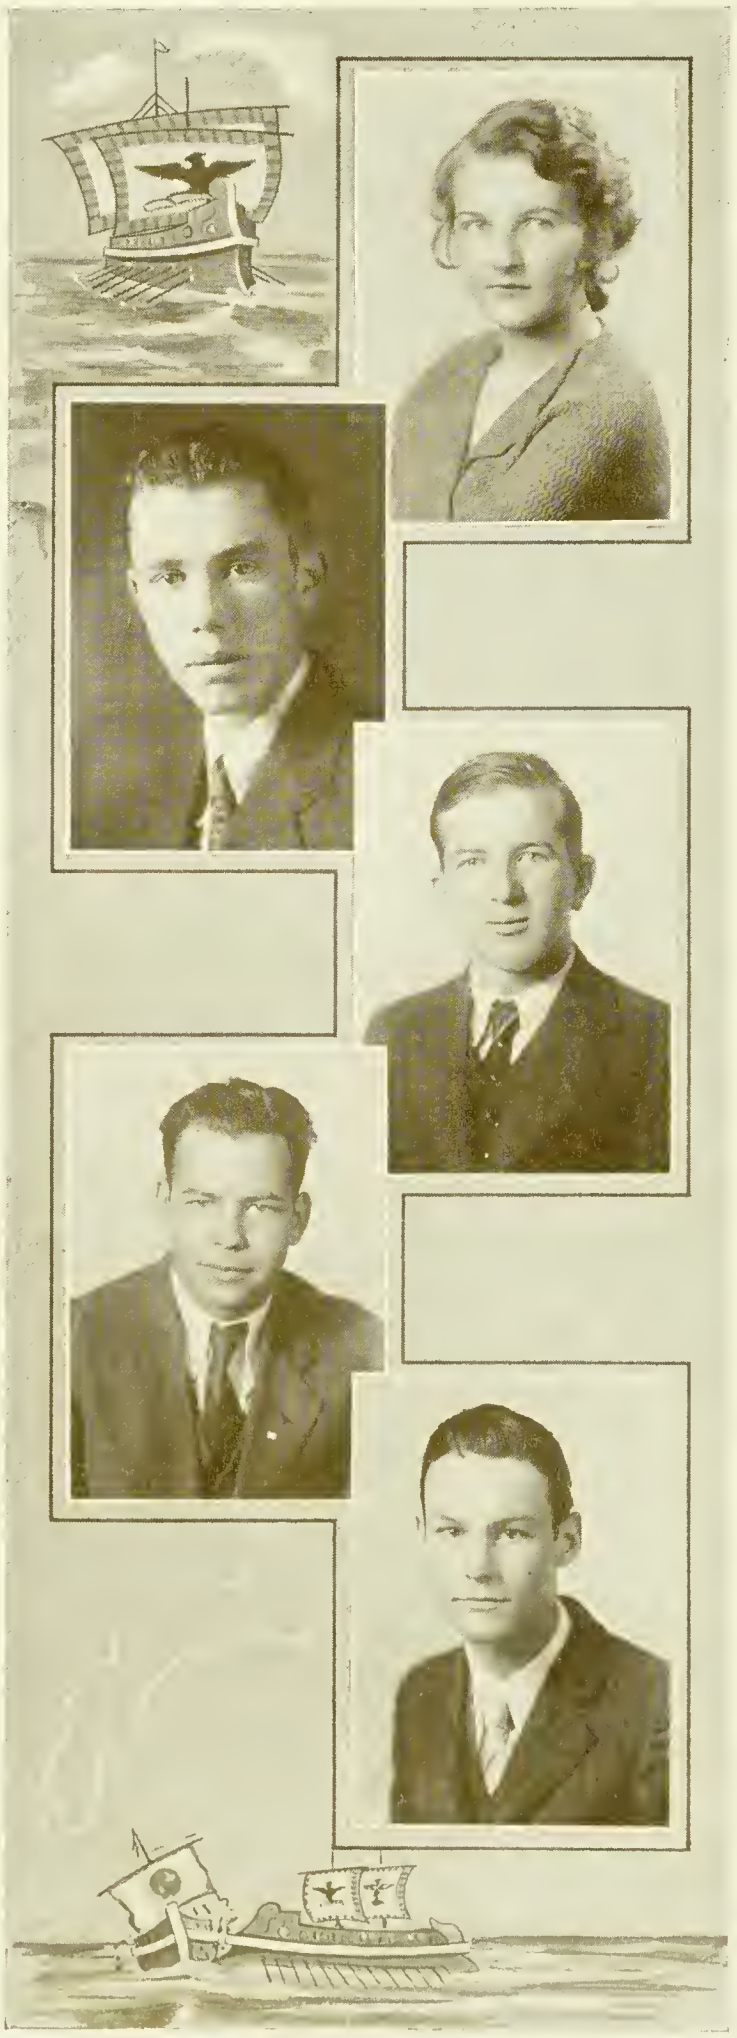

Roman Rollins

"Fundiddy"

Woodrow Wilson Literary Society, '28, '29; Athletic Association, '28, '29; Baseball Team, '30, '31; Basketball Team, '31, '32; Football Team, '32; Track, '32.

"Fundiddy! Fundiddy!", was the famous cry of the football fans this last year. Roman takes knocks and gets up smiling even when his nose is knocked crooked. Hampton will ever welcome such students as Roman.

LAURA EVELYN ROSE

"Teddy"

Transferred from Cristobal High School, Panama. Spanish Club, '32.

Teddy is that "petite bundle of liveliness with a likable grin who comes from Panama. She was with us in our Freshman Class and we knew she couldn't stay away. Now the boys can't stay away from her. Better be careful girls!

HENNING ROUNTREE

"Henny"

Thomas Jefferson Literary Society, '28, '29; Athletic Association, '30, '31, '32; Glee Club, '30, '31; Operetta, '30; Orchestra, '30, '31, '32; Band, '30, '31, '32; "Krabba" Staff, '32.

Henny is a very versatile lad. He can do everything from being class poet and playing many instruments to laying linoleum or playing on a comb. In his musical career we say "Good luck", and he certainly has a charming accompanist.

BERYLE SAUNDERS

Band, '30, '31; Latin Club, '30, '31, '32; Athletic Association, '30.

This fellow hails from Phoebus. He possesses a car, a broad grin, a host of friends. and a faculty for always being late. Did you ever know Beryle to refuse to keep you out? No! A unanimous answer!

WILLIAM SHARMAN

"Bill"

Football Team, '28, '29, '30, '31; Track, '28, '29; Boys' Monogram Club, '29, '30, '31; Athletic Association, '28, '29, '30; Athletic Council, '31; Captain of Football, '31.

Bill is the "big man about town" of Hampton High School. As captain of the "Red and White", he led the football boys to a victorious season. His hearty greeting around school will be missed by everyone, (not omitting the girls).

T. J. SHEEHAN

"T. J."

Athletic Association, '30, '31; Commercial Club, '31; Glee Club, '31; Operetta, '31; Spanish Club, '32.

When a fellow can stay in high school four years and not make a single enemy, he must be O. K. T. J. is a good student, attractive, and "one of the boys".

Bernice Shield

French Club, '32; Junior Chorus, '31; Latin Club, '31; Athletic Association, '29, '30, '31.

Do you know her? Of course! Everyone knows Bernice. She's peppy, good natured, well dressed, attractive, a good dancer—wait a minute! Some one said she was a bluffer, but we doubt it —she doesn't need to bluff—we believe in her.

Althea Shumate

"Al"

D. D. K. Club, '32; Glee Club, '30; Operetta, '30; Athletic Association, '31; Latin Club, '30; French Club, '32; Junior Chorus, '30; Home Economics Club, '32; Junior Red Cross, '31; May Court, '31; Vice-President Home Economics Club, '32.

"Al" grins at us from the celebrity page as the most attractive girl, and she deserves the title. She hasn't given the boys at school a break this year because it seems she is now a "one man girl".

Louise Sinclair

French Club, '32; Latin Club, '31; Athletic Association, '28, '29, '30, '31; Vice-President Junior Class, '30; Junior Chorus, '30; Glee Club, '28, '29, '30; Operetta, '28, '29.

Louise is another celebrity—"the most independent girl", but we wonder if she's not a little dependent on a certain young man.

Frances Curtis Smith

Athletic Association, '30, '31; French Club. '32; Junior Chorus, '31; Latin Club, '30, '31, '32; Junior Red Cross, '30.

Frances came to us with an open mind and a store house full of youthful ambition. This ambition has commanded and served her fittingly. During her sojourn with us, she has developed a keen sense of humor.

Ruby Smith

"Rube"

Athletic Association, '28, '29, '30, '31; Junior Chorus, '30; French Club, '32.

Rube comes from that little place on the map known as Fox Hill. She is always in good humor and her good disposition makes her a pleasant companion, just as her loyalty makes her a worth while friend.

HELEN SKOFIELD

French Club, '32; Athletic Association, '29, '31.

Helen has been back and forth to Hampton but those who know her find a great deal of originality, a keen mind, the ability of making A's without studying, a well developed sense of humor, and twinkling brown eyes.

JOHN SUGDEN

Latin Club, '30, '31.

Johnny's main faults are misbehaving in the History Class and losing his Senior ring. His virtues are a likable giggle and his ability to rival Sam Suddith as "Yo-Yo King".

RICHARD SURATT

"Dick"

French Club, '32.

Dick knows everyone and everyone knows Dick. He is one of our best dancers. We wonder what a certain little Junior will do when he goes away.

AGNES SWARTHAUT

"Mike"

Athletic Association, '30; Commercial Club, '30.

We all know Mike from Phoebus, or maybe you know her better by Aggie. We have watched her go smiling thru classes that made us tear our hair. Good Luck, Mike!

GRACE TAYLOR

Commercial Club, '31; Athletic Association, '28, '29, '30, '31; Home Economics Club, '27; Spanish Club, '32.

It doesn't take Spring to turn a young man's fancies when Grace appears. She is a loyal and popular student. We hate to lose her.

JACK TAYLOR

Football Squad, '28, '29, '30, '31; Monogram Club, '29, '30, '31; Track, '29, '30, '31; Athletic Association, '27, '28, '29, '30, '31; Thomas Jefferson Literary Society, '27, '28.

"The Most Independent Boy" certainly proved his worth on the red and white gridiron. Jack is popular, a good dancer, well-dressed and a good sport.

ANDREW TESSMAN

"Andy"

Transferred from Newport News Hi.

About a year ago Andy left us and went to Newport, but you notice he is back at Hampton, now. Andy is a likable fellow, with a sincere and pleasing personality. Hampton expects great things of him.

JESSE TODD

"Jess"

Jesse never says much, but has a smile that doesn't fail to attract. He looks wise in classes. They say that he has never been in love, but he has many friends in school.

ELEANOR TOPPING

"E"

Junior Red Cross, '30; Commercial Club, '31; Athletic Association, '28, '29, '30; Junior Chorus, '30.

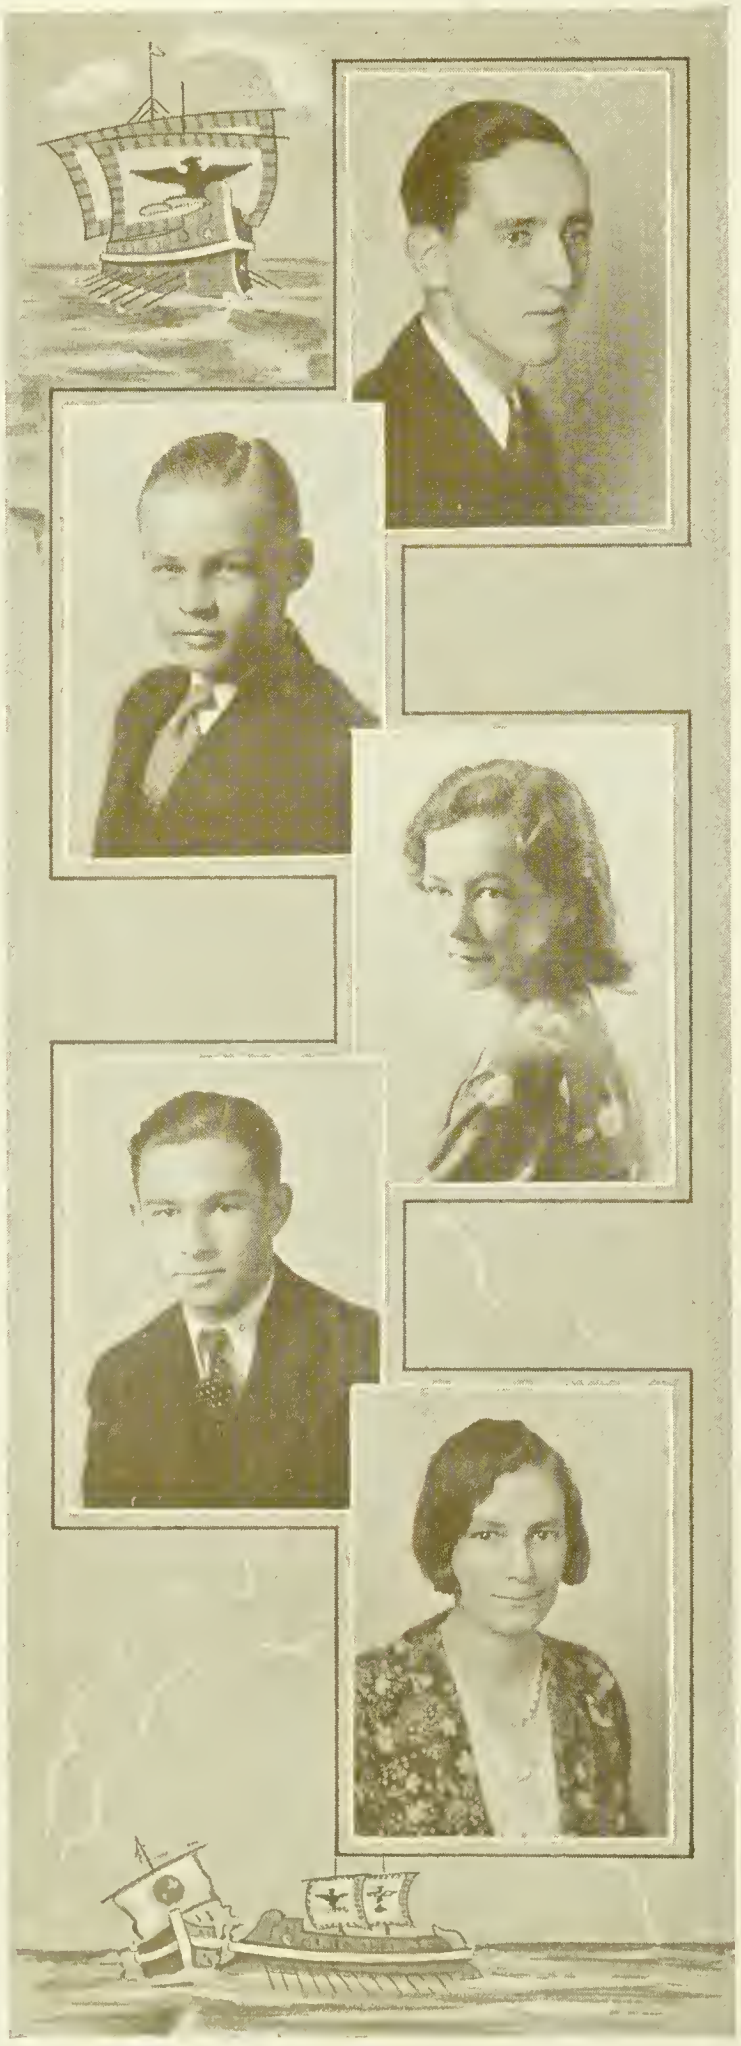

Eleanor is a fair young lady of the nobler sort. They say that her picture in Cheyne's window causes a traffic jam. She's jolly, happy and a good pal, especially to one who graduated in '31.

MARION HART TOWNSEND

Junior Chorus, '30; Junior Red Cross, '30; Athletic Association, '28, '29, '30; Commercial Club, '31.

That natural permanent wave that Marion possesses has been the envy of the girls in school. She has been a favorite with us because of her pleasing personality and her good sportsmanship.

WILLIAM H. TRAYNHAM

"Smoochy"

Athletic Association, '27, '28, '29, '30, '31; Manager of Track, '30; Athletic Council, '30; Track Squad, '31; Football Squad, '31; Basketball Squad, '29, '30, '31; Golf Team, '32; Thomas Jefferson Literary Society, '27, '28; Latin Club, '28, '29, '30, '31; Pioneer Staff, '32; Krabba, '32; Monogram Club, '31, '32.

A glance at "H's" activity list will show you that he has been manager of nearly every team in school. We're wishing him the best of luck!

ROBERT TURNBULL

"Bobby"

Athletic Association, '29, '31; Commercial Club, '30, '31, '32; Spanish Club, '32.

Bobby is a quiet sort of lad who never gets very excited except when someone says "Susy"; then, he jumps and looks around quickly. He is a good student and a loyal member of the class of '32.

NANCY VAUGHAN

"Nancy Lee"

Athletic Association, '30; Junior Red Cross, '30; Junior Chorus, '31; Glee Club, '30, '31.

Her life and actions are shrouded in mystery. She is a pensive blonde with many admirers. Nancy works hard, but likes a good time.

SEVERN WALLACE

"Seve"

Athletic Association, '28, '29, '30, '31; Spanish Club, '32; Commercial Club, '31, '32.

Another one who hails from that famous village of Fox Hill. If you don't know Seve, but of course you do, you have missed a lot.

ARLENE WALTON

Commercial Club, '31; Athletic Association, '31.

Arlene is one of our quiet girls, always studying and minding her own affairs. We often wonder how much longer her name will be Walton.

ELSIE WATSON

Athletic Association, '29, '30, '31; Latin Club, '29, '30; Commercial Club, '31, '32; Spanish Club, '32; Glee Club, '29, '30, '31; Operetta, '29, '30, '31.

Even though Elsie does work a lot on bookkeeping, we know she doesn't mix business with pleasure; perhaps pleasure comes first.

CHARLES WELCH

"Charlie"

Krabba Staff, '32; Athletic Association, '30, '31; Football Squad, '31, '32; Monogram Club, '31, '32.

Charlie is noted for his good looks and his excellent work on the football team. He is a little bashful, but the girls won't let him alone. May he conquer the world!

RUTH WEST

Athletic Association, '29, '30, '31; Latin Club, '29, '30; Glee Club, '30; Operetta, '30.

Ruth is a quiet, unassuming girl who takes life in earnest. She has working ability, an attractive face, and lots of friends.

PAULINE WHITEHOUSE

Commercial Club, '31; Basketball Team, '31, '32.

Can't you see her deftly throwing a basketball and putting all her pep in the game? That's Pauline. She has proved to be a loyal, true friend to her Alma Mater.

SUMMERVILLE WILKINSON

Athletic Association, '31; French Club, '32; Glee Club, '31; Operetta, '31.

Summerville has been a faithful worker during the four years that she has been with us. She brought to school a shining coutenance and a keen sense of humor. We hate to lose you, Summerville!

Claude Williams

Latin Club, '28, '29; Athletic Association, '29, '30, '31.

Claude is just full of mischief and fun and you can always have a good time with him. He provides the entertainment for the "floating seniors".

Jack Willis

Football Squad, '28; Basketball Squad, '29, '30; Athletic Association, '27, '28, '29.

Jack is a good host; he throws the best parties. When he gets to be a senator he will surely please Congress with his ability to entertain.

Frances Winder

Treasurer of Sophomore Class, '30; Athletic Association, '29, '30, '31; Glee Club, '30, '31; Operetta, '30, '31; Commercial Club, '31, '32; Krabba Staff, '31, '32; Spanish Club, '32; President of the Spanish Club, '32; Orchestra, '32.

Did you ever wish that you could be pretty, intelligent, popular, and a good dancer? Frances has never wished for any of these; fate has been good to her. She holds first place scholastically.

Charles Wood

"Charlie"

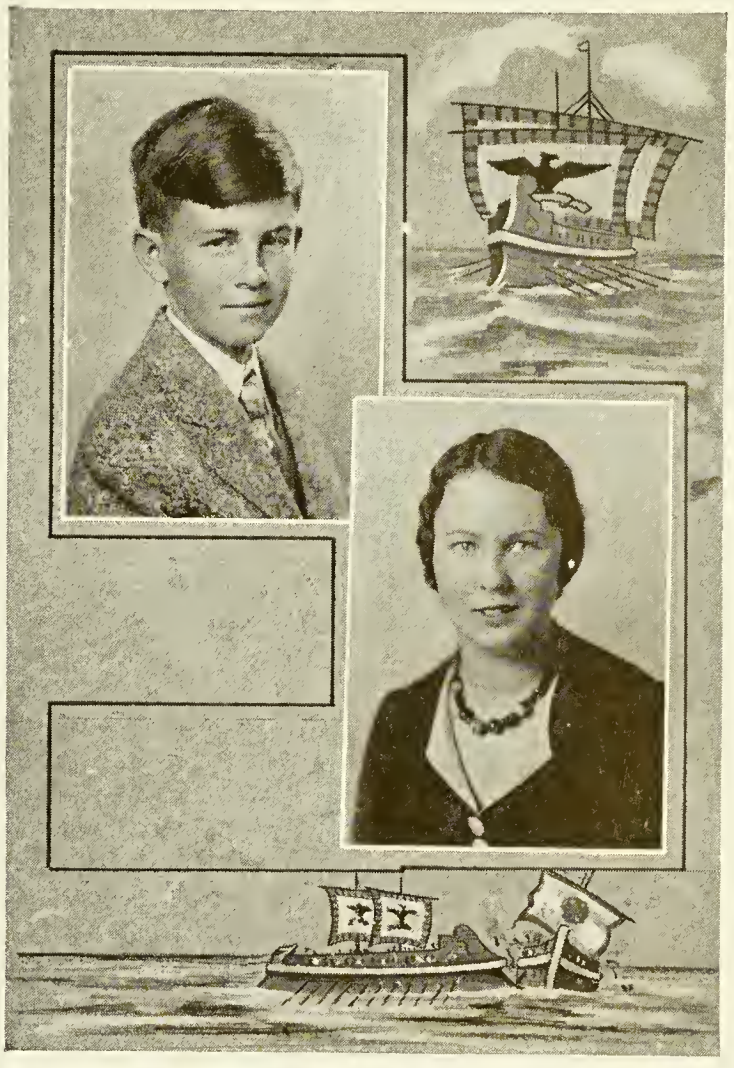

Athletic Association, '29, '30, '31; Thomas Jefferson Literary Society, '29; Latin Club, '29, '30.

Charlie is one of those good-looking boys who hails from Buckroe. We hear that he spends much time in Phoebus, but we can't blame him.

Grace Dorothy Wooldridge

Commercial Club, '31; Glee Club, '29; Junior Chorus, '30.

Grace is a good business lady, but she doesn't let that interfere with fun. In fact the boys won't let her.

GEORGE WIATT

George climbs in Bill Metts' coat pockets when he goes to an entertainment. He is quite an inventor, but the school is still standing. Everyone likes him.

VIDA VANN

"Tillie"

Latin Club, '30, '31; Glee Club, '30, '31.

Vida is a versatile person. She assures one more day of life for her friends, by passing around jelly-beans in study hall. She is attractive, and well-liked.

Breezy Madness

It is moonlit, cloud swept, starry night,
The bleak wind howls like mad thru whistling trees,
And all the solemn owls are drunk with the breeze;
They're all ago with happiest delight,
All think they're looking at a novel sight.
They flap their wings and hoot in ecstacies,
For suddenly they've seen the clouds' white knees,
And are reduced by them to this sad plight.

The moon on high looks down and chuckles loud,
For he's aware of what they do not know;
Their sight is formed by moonbeams on the cloud,
Which is about to loose its load of snow
And cover all the world with wintry shroud,
And thereby terminate that row below.

—KENNETH MILLER, '33.

History of the Class of 1932

Freshmen! At last we had reached high school and entered the routine of high school life. Our sudden, peculiar feeling of importance was soon crushed, however, by the superiority of these dignified upperclassmen—Seniors! We organized our class as follows: President, Frances Moreland; Vice-President, Marion Johnson; Secretary, Mary Burdick; Treasurer, James Sinclair.

Sophomores! Having gained our self-confidence, we considered ourselves a necessary part of dear old Alma Mater. Our officers this year were: President, Bill Bradley; Vice-President, Ann Masters; Secretary, Lois Jarrett; Treasurer, Frances Winder. We became better acquainted with the ways of H. H. S. and began to explain them to the "Rats", who greatly appreciated our efforts.

Juniors! Rapidly we were climbing the mystifying ladder to graduation. Our class had increased to a large number, but a few of the members failed to vanquish these monsters, chemistry and geometry and dropped behind. The class officers chosen were: President, Roxie Moore; Vice-President, Kenneth Cumming; Secretary, Mary Bray, Treasurer, George Condon. That year we were well represented in athletics and other school activities. We heard plans discussed for a new auditorium, gymnasium, and more class rooms.

Seniors! A distinguished title which we received with great pleasure. Immediately we obtained and enjoyed these longed for Senior privileges.

Kenneth Cumming was selected as our president and to assist him were: Vice-President, Ned Morgan; Secretary, Mary Bray; Treasurer, Payne Parker.

Our dream has been realized! We now have a spacious, new auditorium, gym, and more class rooms. How proud we feel to be the first class to be graduated in the new auditorium.

We sincerely hope that in going out into life, we will not disappoint those who have labored and triumphed with us these past four years and that we will live up to their expectations, and fulfill the prophesies they have made for us.

FRANCES MORELAND.

The Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of '32 having absorbed the knowledge offered by the Hampton High School and thus preparing ourselves to sail out into life hereby declare this to be our last will and testament:

To the Juniors we bestow our aroused school spirit, our Senior privileges and dignity, our keen wit, excellent behavior, and our favor with the teachers. And now we come to the personal bestowals:

1 Kenneth Cumming leaves to Roxie Moore his success as Senior Class president.
2 To Janice Curtis, Mary Bray leaves her popularity.
3 To Lucy Baker, Jacqueline Green leaves her ability to dance.
4 Dick Suratt leaves that horse "laff" to Macy Sharf.
5 Bernice Shield leaves a "line of bull" to rope Miss Reid.
6 To Hampton High School, Elizabeth Crouse bequeaths this annual.
7 Dora Deane, Reisa Cooper, Agnes Swarthout, and Alice Zephir leave sweet memories of Phoebus.
8 Marjorie Hundley leaves her sweet and quiet ways to Daisy McMenamin.
9 Frances Moreland, Rosewood Brittingham and Frances Fertitta leave their Senior dignity to Laura Johnson.
10 Althea Shumate leaves her attractiveness to Marguerite Bradford.
11 Jeanne Brittton leaves her height to Margaret Lee.
12 Theresa Maloney and George Wiatt leave their lack of height to Lee Roy Carson.
13 Charlie Welch leaves his good looks to Mac Curtis.
14 Irene Bryant bestows her "gift 'o' gab" upon Gertrude Muire.
15 Annabel Carswell and Ned Morgan leave their advice to the love-lorn.
16 Myron Shafer and Raymond Lewis leave their dramatic ability to Bob Stout.
17 Frances Winder leaves her good grades just to show it can be done.
18 John Sudgen leaves the belle of Hampton Roads Ave. to Kenneth Taylor.
19 Nancy Lee Vaughan leaves for the beach.
20 Payne Parker, Dykes Clark, Norman Davis, Milton Houck, Andrew Tessman and James Hutton, "the floating Seniors", leave the halls of H. H. S.
21 Robert Turnbull leaves his blond hair to Bob Lambert.
22 To Fay Carmines, Thomas Kewley leaves his self-confidence.
23 Harriet Hann, Pauline Whitehouse and Grace Taylor leave their talent along athletic lines to Gail Josselyn.
24 Jayne Fogleman leaves her creative writing ability to Dorothy Colvin.

25 Rosalie Quinn, Glendaw Davis, and Edwin Conklin leave their minstrel songs to Sam Suddith.

26 Dorothy Ransone leaves her bus business to Jack Kelly.

27 Eleanor Topping and Marion Townsend leave their friendship to Marian Hinman and Lucetta Crawford.

28 Forrest and Roman Rollins leave their noteworthy basketball playing to Joe Carpenter.

29 Russell Pace leaves his dancing ability to "Country" Rollins.

30 Henning Rountree and William Howard leave for a little chess game.

31 Ruby Matar leaves her art of chewing gum to Lucille Morris.

32 Chauncey Franklin leaves his wisecracks to Norwood Evans.

33 Frances Curtis Smith leaves her over-share of curiosity to Betty Thompson.

34 Austin Robinson and Jack Willis leave their dignity and quiet ways to "Little Wootten".

35 Madolyn Benthall and Charles Wood will very probably leave together.

36 Elizabeth Darden leaves her bluffing to her little sister.

37 Clara Belle Desper and Catherine Graham leave their good grades in French to Gray Garrow.

38 William Quinn and T. J. Sheehan leave for Fox Hill.

39 Louise Sinclair leaves her independence to Louise Wiatt.

40 Audrey Clements, Marie Drummond, Gladys Dresser, Hawley Hancock, Myrtle Edwards, Annie Rollins, and Ethel Oman leave to become somebody's "stenog".

41 Ellsworth Dansey leaves his bottle to Bill Hudgins.

42 William H. Traynham leaves his golf clubs to A. B. Conner.

43 Bill Sharman leaves the motor of his new Ford to James Teagle.

44 Robert Bloxom leaves his Wild West Stories to George May.

45 Laura Rose leaves her innocence to Ann Hinman.

46 Mary Elouise Reigel leaves her violin to Helen Bona.

47 The other members of the class leave their good will in this, the last will and testament of the class of 1932.

Executed at Hampton, in Elizabeth City County, State of Virginia this the eighteenth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two.

(Signed) Class of one thousand nine hundred thirty-two Lois Jarrett—Attorney-at-law.

Witnesses—Ned Morgan
Frances Moreland
Robert Turnbull.

A Modern Farewell to H. H. S.

Sitting in school,
Dreaming, possibly of a date,
Possibly, the next class,
More likely nothing.
Many times we poetic souls
Attempt to create something,
To show our gratitude to Hampton High.
We write nice things,
Sentimental things,
And shamefacedly tear them up.
We dare not mention
The well-known facts of
Fighting for Alma Mater;
Respecting our faculty,
And lastly that now we are going out
Into the great school of life.
If we read it,
We wait for a suppressed giggle
From a fellow student,
Or the pitying glances of a teacher.
We read on,
Stumbling, choking, blushing,
Knowing that each member
Could nearly repeat each line,
So familiar is he, with this rambling.
Why can't we,
Just get up and grin?
Turn to H. H. S.
And say, as we would to a friend—
"So long, old top, I won't forget the favor.
Maybe I can do something for you some day."

Alice Zephir, '32.

Class Prophecy

Seated in my dark little studio, working feverishly on my conception of a huge city, I glanced at the calendar, June 10, 1942—the date seemed somehow to recall old memories. As I gazed at the half completed painting, the lights seemed gradually to dim and blue, then snapped suddenly bright. As in a daze, I found myself walking the streets of this fantastic city of my imagination, suddenly come to life. Before me a great bridge arched up into the evening sky and I strolled in awed silence up its huge walk.

Suddenly a figure loomed in the darkness, lunged for the railing and prepared to throw itself into the inky black waters beneath. Rushing forward, I seized the man, to prevent his tragic act.

"John Sugden," I gasped, "What is the meaning of this?"

"Just a fickle li'l' swee' pea!" he muttered as he tore loose and fled screaming into the night.

I hurried away to find more cheerful surroundings, finally stopping in front of a large, brilliantly lighted theatre, where blazing posters announced the attractions. On entering the theatre, I was surprised to note that it was lighted by a peculiar device which gave light without heat. An usher informed me that it was one of the numerous inventions of the electrical wizard, Lewis Kissenger. Just then the curtain rose, and I hurried to find a seat.

The one-man band was announced, and as he opened his mouth to play the saxophone I recognized Henning Rountree.

Next the comedy was shown, and the efforts of Chauncey Franklin kept the audience rocking with laughter.

Then the newsreel flashed on, showing the latest news of the day. A professional football game starring William Sharman, flashed on the screen, while Mrs. Hawley Hancock Jones, the wife of another player, gazed with fond admiration. Sports depicted a meet with Forrest Rollins carrying away the honors; then a headline "Missionary off on another trip to Orient", and a likeness of Thelma Monson was shown.

Finally the feature was shown, and I at once recognized the Garbo-like presence of the star as Alice Zephir.

After the show was over I joined several of my old classmates and they offered to show me the city.

Our first stop was the newly completed high school where we found Mary Eloise Reigel as instructor in French, Helen Skofield also holding a position in this department. George Wiatt, who as I later found out, was married to Clara Belle Desper, was professor of Mathematics. Agnes Swarthout was commercial instructor, with Dorothy Ransome presiding in the Home Economics Department.

As we walked down the long hall I met W. H. Traynham, the golf star, who was still trying to pass Latin.

A bronze plate on the wall attracted my attention. It stated that the electrical work in the building was done by the Houck Elecrical Co., the building designed by Thomas Kewley, Architect, and erected by contractor Jesse Todd.

From the school we journeyed to the latest office building, ooccupied by Payne Parker, State Treasurer. In the office I noticed Ethel Oman, Rosewood Britt ngham, Jeanne Britton and Olga Hellman, stenographers.

In the private office we turned on the radio and immediately picked up a program starring Elizabeth Crouse, and sponsored by the Bradley Sweater Co., Welch's Grape Juice Co., Silverstein's Clothing Store, the Rountree Furniture Co., and Jones' peanuts. The program consisted of a violin solo, "Among My Souvenirs". Next we heard a talk by Frances Moreland, on "How to make your breakfast room attractive, "sponsored by the Darling Ice Co., the Lewis Publishing House and the Bloxom Lawn Trimming Co. Marion Townsend then rendered a solo, sponsored by the Conkling Hay and Wood Co.

While enjoying this program, I noticed a newspaper and glanced through it. The advertising columns contained many familiar names—Cooper and Saunders Grocery Store, Fertitta Fruit Co., The Shumate Wood Co., and The Bryant Talking Machine Factory.

In the news items I noticed that Marjorie Hundley, the noted musician, was in town to play at the Town Hall, Managed by Roman Rollins. At this time, also, there was a lecture by Dorothy Kerr on "The Collection of Antique Bracelets".

A headline attracted my attention, saying that Marie Gsell had been made National Girl Scout Master.

The "Advice to Love Lorn", conducted by Elizabeth Darden and Elizabeth Moore, contained a few familiar names. Dykes Clark wanted to know if he should fire his stenographer because she was so Green. William Howard confessed that he had given away his heart, but as he forgot to Winder, it was found to be wood, and the lady in question had reached the paramount of her career. A letter from West Point confessed that the writer, one Morgan by name, was expecting the return from Egypt of the great traveling scholar, Annabelle Carswell, with matrimonial hopes.

Someone turned off the radio, and the conversation drifted to our old classmates.

"Did you hear that Charles Catlett, who runs a dairy, will only keep dark cows because he believes the farm is no place for a blond?" asked someone.

"No," replied another, "But Harry Lewis is in the glove business because he thinks the Hann is so important."

"By the way," I asked, "what became of Robert Turnbull?"

"Oh, he's married, but I Doane know to whom."

William Knewstep has become an expert Hunter," said Mary Bray, assistant treasurer, who had just come in.

"Did you hear that Bernice Shield just inherited a Taylor shop?" asked William Quinn, first secretary.

Just then a great commotion was heard in the outside office, and on investigating we found that Frances Curtis Smith, who ran the check room, was having an argument with a man who seemed slightly intoxicated, and whom Kenneth Cumming, a prominent lawyer, was urging to suc. The matter was soon adjusted and as I left the building I noticed Dansey's Service Station. Parked in front of the station was a truck belonging to the Hutton Plumbing Co. and a truckload of Norman Davis' vegetables.

A little farther down the street a sign boasted that Ernest Proudman, chess expert, was in town to offer instructions. With him was Andrew Tessman, the famous music teacher. Another signboard stated that Laura Rose, great stage actress, was appearing at a local theater.

An ambulance rushed by, and in it I noticed Ruby Price, attired as a nurse, with Doctor Alfred Wray driving the car. The patient was Glendaw Davis, who was being rushed to Fox Hill for a major heart operation.

A sports bulletin was just ahead, nailed to the side of the Jones Cleaning and Pressing plant. It stated that Julia Moore had just won the tennis championship. Beside this announcement was a society placard, saying that Nancy Vaughan was now sponsor of the local chapter of De Molay.

A truckload of magazines went by, driven by Austin Robinson. In trying to avoid it I slipped and fell. Instantly Audrey Clements rushed up, trying to sell me an accident insurance policy. I managed to escape by directing her to Mary Alice Copeland, the actress, who happened to pass at that moment.

A carload of girls went by, and I recognized Elsie Watson as the driver, with Gladys Dresser, Marie Drummond, Constance Ettridge and Catherine Graham as passengers. They were going to a basket-ball game, starring Pauline Whitehouse.

Suddenly a crowd began to gather and on investigating I found that a young radio salesman and his bride, the former Lois Jarrett, were being arrested for attempting to hitch-hike on their honeymoon. The bride explained that she was unable to break herself of the habit of "bumming" rides which she had formed while attending high school.

From here I strolled on, and suddenly felt very drowsy.

"Wake up!" cried a voice in my ear, "and finish this painting so you can pay your rent!"

With a sigh, I returned to grim reality.

Upon Reading Elizabethan Poetry

I love to sit and read the poems old
Of Spenser, Shakespeare, Ben and all the rest,
And ponder over those I think the best.
I visualize the men their ideals mould,
When lyrics by those poets I unfold,
With greatest joy their contents I digest,
For reading those old poets at their best,
More fairer poetry one cannot behold.
Albeit I may like some poetry new,

Consume it with my most eager desire,
I cannot help but think how very few
Of poets with their best poetic fire,
(From subjects like old Shakespeare used to hew)
Can make their poem live and ne'er expire.

Small Town Movie

Don't you remember the good old days when everyone in your social scope went to the movies on Saturday? Way back in 1925 when all Saturday movies had a serial picture. There was then the now extinct and proverbial peanut gallery. Remember? Sure you do.

No sooner would the lights go out than you would sit on the edge of your seat and chew that gum just a little bit faster. Then you'd remember. The advertisements. And the comedy. All of this to be bored by before the fate of the beautiful Kallah Lillie would be revealed to the expectant audience.

After whispering to your girl friend excitedly (she happened to have missed the last week's episode) the happenings in said episode, you stare at the ceiling's cupids and their peeling trumpets. (Note I said peeling—not pealing.) Then you are aroused by various and sundry crude noises, that is, whistles, screams, bellows, catcalls, and peanut shells, (these latter objects inevitably hitting the old man over there with the bald head and the monocle). The piano—ah, friend, forget not the noble piano and the pianist. She, the pianist, of course, sways like the Indians doing the war dance around a covered wagon. The music that she plays sounds like that too, but it's supposed to represent, "It's a Long Way to Tipperary."

Then the Babel quiets down and the last scenes of the preceding chapter are relived.

The villian—whose name is Dare-devil Dan, Desperate Desperado from Des Moines, has taken Kallah down to the old family saw mill and there has tied her to a log. She has swooned prettily (remember how you tried to swoon just that way when you went home that night. And remember how you fell and bumped your head on the bed as you misjudged your distance?) and is draped gracefully over said log. Desperate Dan pulls lever releasing the log and both girl and log start their gruesome trip towards ye olde buzze sawe. Alexander Lockheart, the brown-eyed, fair haired, stalwart hero, arrives on the scene just as Kallah's golden tresses become entangled in the teeth of the thirsty saw. —Ah ha—doesn't this make you want to tear your hair, or—perhaps mine?).

Just as Alex (please pardon the familiarity if we use your name thus, Alexander) had overpowered the villian, in step the loyal men of the desperado. They in turn overpower the hero and things are worse than they were before. The villain twirls his black mustache (don't all villains have black mustaches?) and slurs at the beautiful Kallah.

"Ah ha, my proud beauty."

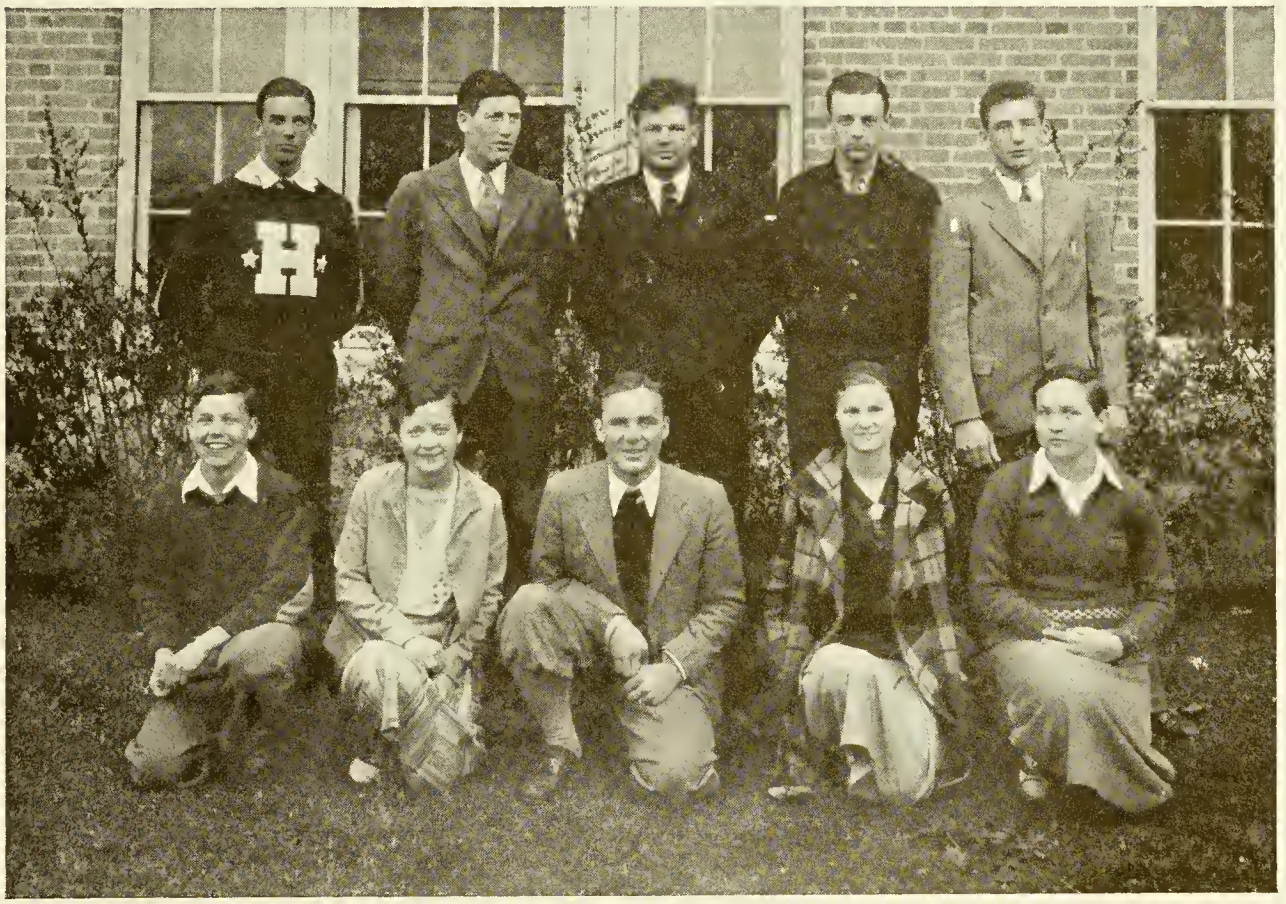

Then the henchmen of the desperado prepare to shoot the handsome hero—and —and—and—O Shux!

Continued Next Week

Sure you remember.

Football Summary, 1931

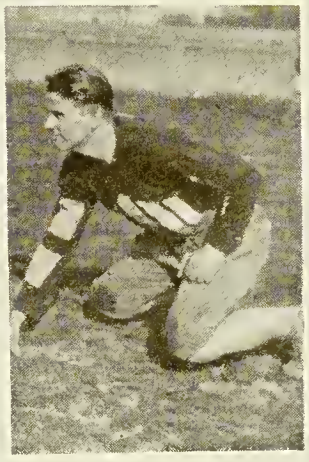

Facing one of the hardest sehedules in the history of Hampton High School Football, the 1931 team closed its season with a most creditable showing, under the direction of Wm. Metts, one time star of the North Carolina State College.

The wiseacres agree that some of the most outstanding players in the state represented the Red and White. K. Cumming, one of the state's outstanding players in High School circles was placed in one of the all state elevens.

Only a few of the men will be lost for next year's eleven, among these are: Lewis, Taylor, Sharman, Cumming and Welch. Coach Metts is looking forward to a hard, clean schedule for 1932, during which he hopes to present a state champion team.

H. H. S., 14—SUFFOLK HIGH SCHOOL, 0

In the opening encounter of the season, the warriors of the Red and White showed the public that they were going to have a football team of which Hampton would be proud. No one man could be called outstanding during the fray as the whole team made a fine showing. Coach Metts gave the entire squad a chance to show their ability. Hampton made her scores in the first and last halves.

H. H. S., 6—HOPEWELL, 0

This year Hopewell had with them one of the outstanding backs in the state, Cunningham a triple threat man. He possessed unusual ability in kicking. It was not until the third quarter that the Hampton High School team scored. Hopewell's strong line repulsed many chances in scoring distance of the goal. The whole team may be credited for this fine showing in football.

H. H. S., 0—PORTSMOUTH, 9

The first setback of the season was made by a fighting eleven from Portsmouth. The game was played on a muddy field with a drizzly rain. This made it hard for the light, fast backs of Hampton. Portsmouth's big score didn't come until the last quarter and only after the heavier team had worn down the energy of the Red and White eleven.

H. H. S., 61—CHESTER, 6

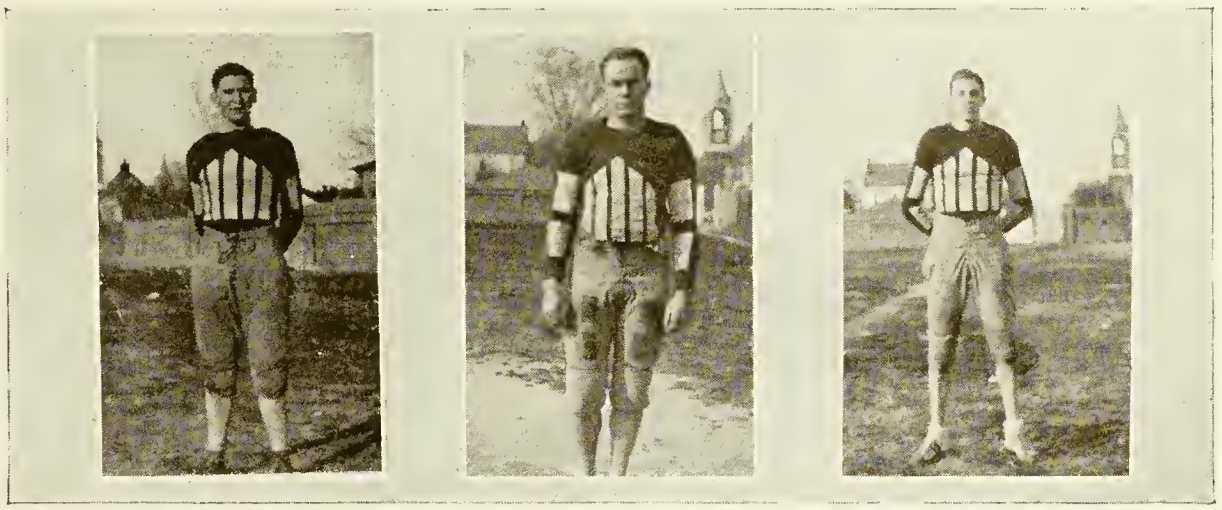

In a game in which Coach Metts used every member of his squad, Hampton ran up one of its largest scores in the History of its football team, even after the Chester team had scored first on a freak play. Chester was one of the weakest teams the Crabbers faced all season, being outweighed and outplayed the entire game. Many long runs by members of the Hampton team proved to be the only interest in this contest.

CHARLES H. TAYLOR MEMORIAL LIBRARY

H. H. S., 0—W. & M. FRESHMEN, 6

After holding a stronger team for three quarters, the jinx turned on the Crabbers to have a kick blocked which proved to be the only way the Freshmen team from Williamsburg could cross the Crabber goal line. In this game John Maloney, one of the outstanding players of the Hampton team, was injured to the extent that he was lost to the team for the rest of the season. Although the game proved a defeat for the Crabbers they should be praised for their fine showing against a strong team.

H. H. S., 6—SOUTH NORFOLK, 0

After being repulsed many times in the shadow of South Norfolk's goal, the Crabbers finally mustered strength for a drive that proved to be the score which decided the game. South Norfolk was a formidable foe, having held Maury High School to a 0-0 score. They presented a fast backfield and a charging line. The Red and White deserve much praise for winning this fray.

H. H. S., 0—N. N. H. S., 12

After holding their ancient rivals to a scoreless tie for two quarters, the jinx turned on the Crabbers only to have the Shipbuilders score twice on forward passes in the last half. Hampton made more first downs, and yardage during the contest than did their rivals. The fast backs of Newport News were held for few gains throughout the game. One of the largest crowds ever to witness a football game on the lower peninsula turned out for the game.

H. H. S., 19—THOMAS JEFFERSON, 0

The Crabbers engagement with this team was the first encounter with the eleven from Richmond. The Red and White warriors had underrated the strength of their foes and it was only in the second quarter that they were able to make their first score. The game was a hard fought contest despite the fact that the Crabbers made three touchdowns. The plucky eleven from Richmond proved a formidable foe. Coach Metts used a number of substitutions in this game so that no one would be crippled for the Maury game.

H. H. S., 18—MAURY, 14

The Red and White closed this season in a blaze of glory. Rated the underdogs by the fans, the team made the best showing of the entire season. Maury presented one of the heaviest teams in High School circles, and a fast backfield. Hampton made all her scores in the first half, and it was only in the last half after the weight of the rivals began to tell on the Crabbers, that Maury did her scoring. The game was witnessed by one of the largest crowds ever to attend a contest on the local field.

Football Game

I took my girl to the football game,
She said she tho't it was awf'lly tame.
She mashed my hat when they kicked the ball,
She blacked my eye and that isn't all—
She kicked my shin (I'm still quite lame),
I'll tell you I didn't think it was tame.

I took my girl to the football game,
I'll never be myself again;
When they blocked the kick she pulled my hair,
There's still a spot peculiarly bare,
I asked her what she tho't of the game,
She said it still was pretty tame.

I took my girl to the football game,
To top it all it began to rain;
She took my coat and about my hat,
To make it good she sat on that.
All things end, but I'm not to blame,
If I take that girl to another game.

1932 Basketball Season

Guided by the ability of Coach Bill Metts and aided by Captain Curtis, the entire team played each game with one thought in mind, the honor of the Red and White. Victory was not the result of all the games played but loyalty, co-operation, and friendship were the links which united each member of the squad.

1932 Girls' Basketball Season

The faix sex of Hampton High School piloted by Mary Burdick with determination and zeal to play a better game, went forth to battle. The scores were not startling, but the untiring efforts proved that the spirit of Hampton High will never die.

Jokes

Mr. Baker: What can you tell me about nitrates?

Mac Curtis: Well, er, they're a lot cheaper than day rates.

Miss Forbes: How can you make anti-freeze?

Bob Carswell: Easy—hide her pajamas.

Russell Pace: What caused the explosion on your father's farm?

Jack Willis: He fed a chick some "Lay or Bust Feed" and it turned out to be a rooster.

"I think that I shall never see
An F as lovely as an E.
An E whose graceful form is pressed
Upon the records of the blessed
An F comes easily—and yet,
It isn't easy to forget;
F's are made by fools like me,
But only God could make an E."

Miss Jones: Will you give me ten cents to help the Old Ladies' Home?

Mr. Thorpe: What! Are they out again?

Mr. Thorpe, trying to show appreciation: I have nothing but praise for the new minister of our church.

Miss Ellis: So I noticed when the plate was passed by you.

Mr. Lewis, feeling old and decrepit: Well, I heard several students talking about me today. I shall not be a nuisance to them much longer.

Harry L. Reassuringly: Now, Uncle don't talk like that, you know you will.

Miss Wilson: "Who was the father of the famous Black Prince?"

Gail Josselyn: "Old King Cole."

Mother: "Jacqueline, I saw a man kissing you at the back door last night, was it the postman or the policeman?"

Jacqueline Green: "Was it before eight o'clock or after?"

Miss Pace: "Tell me one or two things about John Milton."

Dick Suddith: "Well, he got married, and he wrote 'Paradise Lost'. Then his wife died, and he wrote 'Paradise Regained'."

Ned Morgan: (graduating) "Good-bye, Mrs. Stevens. I am indebted to you for all I know."

Mrs. Stevens: "Don't mention such a trifle."

Mr. Baker: "First I'll take some Sulphuric acid, and then I'll take some chloroform."

Daisy McMenamin: "That's a good idea."

The trouble with Freshmen nowadays is that they get too many pats on the upper back and too few on the lower.

Ann Masters: "I'd like to try that dress on that you have in the window."

Mr. Rountree: "Sorry, Miss, but that's a lamp shade."

Payne Parker: "I'll have you know that I'm related to the Boones."

Kenneth Cumming: "Now I remember your grandmother's name was Bab."

"Miss Pace could have married anybody she pleased."

"Then why is she single?"

"She never pleased anybody."

Mr. Lewis: "Why, my dear sir, this stuff is not poetry. It's just an escape of gas."

Bob Stout: "Ah, something wrong with the meter."

Mr. Thorpe: "This napkin you gave me looks as though it had run its course."

Waiter in Cafe: "Yes sir, it's on its last lap."

Mrs. Mann: "Will you have pie?"
Dick Cloke: "Is it customary?"
Mrs. Mann: "No, it's apple."

Miss Wicker: "Not a pupil in this class will be given liberty this period."

Voice (from rear of the room): "Give me liberty or give me death."

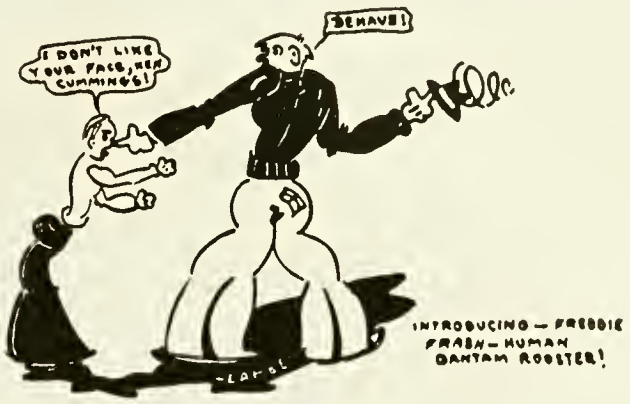

Miss Wicker: "Who said that?"

Voice (meekly): "Patrick Henry."

Teacher: "Oh conductor, please stop the car. I dropped my wig out of the window."

Conductor: "Never mind, Madam, there is a switch just this side of the next stop."

ADVERTISEMENTS

VIRGINIA'S LEADING ANNUAL ENGRAVERS

THIS BOOK

Will be treasured by you as a record of the golden days of youth; of events large and small that will be thus recalled in later years and always with delight; of friendships that will remain forever green.

It will be the magic door through which you need only to pass; to step from age into youth! To us whose privilege it was to have a large and pleasant part in its making, this book will always be a reminder of the many friendships that grew and multiplied in this building.

And so we extend to the Class our heartiest congratulations and to those of you whom we came to know best, Adios! Hasta la vista!
